

Pesach Shabbat Chol Ha-Moed 2009

Passing on the Passover

Exodus 12:22-24 The Destroyer smiting the sinful but passing over the houses of the obedient.

Exodus 12:25-28 Passing the Passover on to your children.

Deuteronomy 6:4-7 Teach them thoroughly to your children.

Exodus 12:37-39 The Jews and all those who chose to follow God left Egypt, trusting in God for their provision.

Exodus 12:42 A night of anticipation and protection.

Exodus 12:43-45 Only the circumcised may eat of the Passover offering.

Exodus 12: 48-50 One law.

The Sealing of the Covenant

Exodus 34:10 The sealed covenant.

Matthew 26:26-29 The renewed covenant.

Mark 15:24-25 The Crucifixion: 9 a.m.

Exodus 29:38-42 The continual burnt offering. The morning offering was made at 9 a.m. and the afternoon offering was at 3 p.m.

Numbers 6:22-27 At the same time the priests in the Temple were raising their hands to perform the Priestly blessing, Yeshua's hands were being raised in the crucifixion post and nailed.

Mark 15:33-37 The death of Yeshua as the second lamb of the continual burnt offering was placed on the altar.

Matthew 27:50-54 Yeshua yielding up his Spirit.

Ezekiel 37:11-14 Raising bones from the graves.

Ephesians 2:4-10 Dead in our sins and brought to life in Messiah.

1 Peter 2:23-25 So that we might die to sin and live for righteousness.

Psalms 114 The "reaction" of Creation when Israel was freed.

Psalms 105:1-8 Give thanks to God for His wonders and His covenant.

The Risen Master

Matthew 28:1 Correctly translated says, "Now after the Sabbath, as it began to draw on (Greek: epifoskeo...not "toward dawn") toward the first of the week..." Probably Saturday evening after the Havdalah service, not Sunday morning. The other three Gospels do record that the women don't discover Yeshua's body missing until dawn and Peter and John don't go to the tomb until after the sun had risen Sunday morning.

John 20:1 Miryam went to the tomb on the first day of the week while it was still dark, anytime after sunset Saturday evening.

John 20:10-16 The risen Master.

Acts 1:6-11 The risen Yeshua ascends with the promise of returning for us all.

Revelation 22:12-21 I am coming soon.
