Acts 17:16-17 Idols.

The Torah and the Nations

Deuteronomy 30:11-14 The accessibility of Torah.

Deuteronomy 31:10-13 The reading to the Torah to everyone every seven years on Sukkot.

Zechariah 14:16-19 The nations and Sukkot.

Acts 16:11-15 Did the minyan include women and especially Greek women or did Stern mistranslate the word?

Acts 17:1-4 Jews and Gentile God-fearers worshiping in a synagogue together in Thessalonica.

Acts 17:10-12 Jews and Greek God-fearers worshiping in a synagogue in Berea.

Acts 17:16-17 Jews and Greek God-fearers worshiping in a synagogue in Athens.

Acts 18:1-4 Jews and Greek God-fearers worshiping in a synagogue in Corinth.

Acts 17:22-31 How God has acted in the lives of all human beings in history.

Deuteronomy 31:14-18 It must have broken Moses's heart to hear these words right before his death. As for Joshua, no wonder he had to be strong and courageous, knowing he was leading these people into the Land to conquer it as promised by God, only to understand the people would ultimately betray the God that protects them.

Deuteronomy 31:8 God goes before you on the journey so don't be afraid.
